Live in History ... Where it Began

The Manassas Battlefield Trust proudly presents:

Renowned Historians & Authors of: The American War

Dr. Gary Gallagher

John L. Nau III Professor in the History of the American Civil War
Director of the Nau Center for Civil War History at the University of Virginia, and recipient of its highest Teaching Award

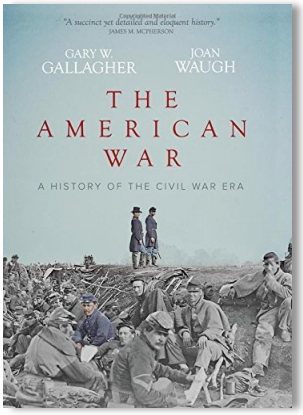
&

Joan Waugh

Professor of History at UCLA and recipient of its most prestigious Teaching Award

The State of the War in Summer 1862



"easily the best one-volume assessment of the Civil War to date" - William C. Davis

Saturday, Aug 5th
10 am – 12 noon
The Winery at Bull Run
15950 Lee Highway Centreville, Virginia 20120

2017 marks the 155th Anniversary of the Battle of Second Manassas. We invite you to join two preeminent historians in a discussion of the events affecting the Nation during the summer of 1862. Dr. Gallagher and Professor Waugh will discuss the political, social and military history made during this crucial period of the Civil War and take questions. The event will conclude with a book signing. A unique event, not to be missed! $45/pp, limited supply of The American War (Hardcover ed.) available for purchase, signed by the authors, $40/copy

Questions or requests for more information, please email: director@manassasbattlefield.org
Please complete the form below and return with payment in the enclosed envelope.

The State of the War in Summer 1862 – Gallagher & Waugh - Saturday, Aug 5, 2017

Member Name: _____
Member's Guest - name (one per member only):_____
Member #2 (Couple's Membership) Name: _____
Member#2's Guest – name (one per member only): _____
Member Address: _____
Email address (required): _____
Preferred daytime phone (must provide if no email address avail): _____

Regular Member & guest fee calculation:
Total members/guests attending ___ x $45.00 = _____
Leadership member fee calculation (15% discount does not apply to guest fees):
Total Leadership members attending: ____ x $38.25 = _____
The American War (signed hardcover ed.) ____ x $40.00 = _____
Total Fees: _____